

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE
Christine Lameti

This is the time of year we think about giving to others and Indigo Run has been extremely generous this year. $1,326 has been collected for Second Helpings. Thank you to Barbara Grimes. $11,490 has been collected for the Children's Fund. Thank you to Betty and Neal Hambleton and Donna Popky who provided the artistic design for the Holiday Card this year. So, thank you to all of our generous neighbors for sending a total of $12,816 to these organizations.

The Holiday Dinner Dance was a smashing success with 160 well-heeled individuals dancing the night away. A very BIG thank you to Janice Turkish and her committee: Jane Collura, Paula Gore, Lynn Lipari, Judith Lawrenson, Judi Seigelbaum, Cheryl Schmidt, and Nancy Shields. Additional thanks go to Janet Gardner for the beautiful centerpieces.

The Annual Holiday Cocktail Party was held on December 8 in the beautifully decorated Indigo Run Hall. A special thank you to Sandra Lankin and her Social Committee: Lynn Fitzpatrick, Lynn Lipari, Cheryl Black, Nancy Miller, Amanda Savage, and Cindy Wuensch for hosting such an enjoyable evening. Thanks to Brad Phillips and the COA for providing funds to purchase the materials and a big thank you to Jeri Farren and her committee for creating the beautiful decorations.

Now we are on to 2014, and resolutions or not, let's make it a great year. Check out the January Newsletter for information on the IRWC Luncheon at Belfair Country Club, Lunch and Learn activities at Indigo Hall, Book Clubs, Out to the Movies and Dinner... the list goes on!

IRWC PROGRAM COMMITTEE
Janice Turkish

The Holiday Dinner Dance was a big success! Great music provided by the Headliners, and a wonderful dinner at The Westin. A big thank you to our program committee for all the hard work on the table and room decorations! Lighted deer and trees and beautiful wrapped packages adorned the room and elegant table decor was the theme of the night. Thank you to Janet Gardner for helping us with our centerpieces. Now we look forward to even more events for the New Year. Join us January 23 at Belfair Country Club for our luncheon where we will be entertained by The Coastal Rhythm Quartet.

Your invitation is enclosed. Be sure to get your reservations in by the January 15 deadline!

INTEREST GROUPS

Diane Polevoy, Chair

ARTS AND ANTIQUES

Co-Chairs: Lorraine Fink carlfink@roadrunner.com or 342-7497 and Clara Stevens clarastevens1@gmail.com or 681-9601

On January 28 we hope you will join us for a day of art experiences in Savannah. To start, we will visit the Telfair Museum to enjoy a guided tour lead by head curator Courtney McNeil. We will view the Rizza Silver collection, a major collection of 18th-20th century American and English silver donated by Dr. Frank Rizza and his family. We will also have the opportunity to see the Robert Henri "Spanish Sojourns: Spirit of Spain" exhibit. Our morning at the Telfair will be followed by a delicious lunch at the Jepson

Before heading home, we will visit the SCAD Museum, which will be featuring the Wendell Castle "Wandering Forms" exhibit. The handmade pieces created by Wendell Castle in Rochester, New York helped shape the American studio furniture movement throughout the 1960's and 1970's. He remains one of the most important American furniture makers working today. "Wandering Forms" includes a variety of furniture pieces from chairs and tables to lighting, as well as intricate drawings from Castle's archives.

To join us, please e-mail Lorraine Fink by January 23. If you can drive, please indicate so when you respond. Reservations will be taken on a first come first served basis, according to the number of drivers who volunteer. Those who attend will meet at 9 AM at Indigo Hall on Tuesday, January 28 to begin our adventure!

BOOK CLUBS

Morning Book Club

Nancy Shields, Chair: 298-3298 or nmshields46@gmail.com

We will not be reading a book for January. Instead, we will meet for lunch and a movie matinee. Date, time, and place to be determined. An email will be sent early in January with specific details. Contact Nancy Shields at nmshields46@gmail.com if you have any questions.

February's book is The Burgess Boys by Elizabeth Strout. Haunted by the freak accident that killed their father when they were children, Jim and Bob Burgess escaped from their Maine hometown of Shirley Falls for New York City as soon as they possibly could. But their long-standing dynamic is upended when their sister, Susan—the Burgess sibling who stayed behind—urgently calls them home. The brothers return to the landscape of their childhood, where the long-buried tensions that have shaped and shadowed their relationship begin to surface in unexpected ways that will change them forever. In March we will read The Language of Flowers by Vanessa Diffenbaugh.

Evening Book Club

Gretchen Gregory, Chair: 682-3348 or gretcheng@hargray.com

On Tuesday January 14 the evening book club will go to a movie in the late afternoon and then to a restaurant for dinner. The movie selected and the dinner location will be e-mailed to book club members.

On Tuesday February 11 we will be reading Beautiful Ruins by Jess Walter. This book is more fun to experience than to summarize. It starts on the coast of Liguria in 1962 when Dee Moray, an American actress, steps off a boat and checks into the Hotel Adequate View, run by a torch-carrying romantic named Pasquale Tursi. Moray is dying, or so she thinks. Fast forward to present day Hollywood. Michael Deane is an odious movie producer who hasn't had a hit in a long time, but is back on top because he got lucky with a reality TV dating show. He has a smart assistant whose duties on Fridays include listening to the crazy movie ideas of every hack and dreamer. On this Friday, one of the hacks is Shane, a loser who thinks his life will turn around if he can successfully pitch "Donner". Another dreamer is Pasquale who appears out of the past looking for Moray. Tursi speaks little English but Shane who spent time in Italy, acts as translator. The Dean Party quickly assembles and goes on a quest across time and continents trying to find themselves and the missing actress. The location of the meeting will be e-mailed to book club members.

For the first few weeks we will place beginners we have taught this fall at their own table. Eventually, they will be merged together. We are grateful to the Golf Club for the use of the card room and are sorry we can no longer use the room as the Club has made other plans for it. On the other hand, we also understand that many of you are interested in a daytime venue for the game, so here we go! Tai classes are held Thursday mornings from 9-10 at Indigo Hall. The form taught is the Beijing 24. The Beijing 24 is aimed at the beginner and uses 24 representative moves from the Yang style. Although it has been simplified by reducing the repetition of moves and some of the more difficult kicks, it contains the important and traditional characteristics and features of Yang style forms.

The short form enables beginners, old and young, to concentrate on, and appreciate, the essential principles of Tai Chi - effortless movement, relaxation and awareness of the mind and body as one. Refer to calendar for class dates.
